

Dual Government

the Formosa resolution—so dangerous to the interests of the United States, so shameful a breach of our moral obligations,—will probably prevail, in spite of the solemn commitment by the President and the Congress to a true American line of action? The reason is this: A group of gangsters cannot be stopped by a written contract. A power group in government cannot be stopped by a state paper. A revolutionary junta, whose purpose is to take over the sovereignty, cannot be stopped by a resolution of Congress. The only answer to a ruthless political action group, determined to destroy the honor of America, is a political action group determined to support American political ideals and defend the men in government who are loyal to them. We talked loosely and superficially about this rival power system. But talk is no longer good enough.

We have called the product the Acheson foreign policy. This dual control of foreign policy was operating in our government as early as 1940 under Harry Hopkins. It operated under Dean Acheson, but it has operated just as effectively since he left. We have no reason whatever to think this group lost its hold because Mr. Acheson resigned. Everything we know indicates the contrary. Who then are the people we are discussing? Where do they operate? On what foundation does their power rest? --

THEY DO NOT OPERATE UNDER CONSTITUTIONAL RESTRAINTS

Part of our confusion comes from the fact that this group does not operate along Constitutional lines at all. Our legal relations staff works in the State Department, under the direction of the President, and within the policy framework laid down by Congress. But the extra-legal foreign policy making conspiracy operates all over the lot. Like a cancer growing wild, it ignores all the restraints inherent in a healthy well balanced organism. The collectivist machine operates, in part, in the State Department, in part, in the White House Secretariat, in the super-Cabinet agencies of national defense, in the Foreign Operations Administration, in the CIA. But a substantial part of it operates outside government. It may be found in the press, in radio, in television, in the parties, in the colleges, in labor unions, in business, in the United Nations—and in the churches. The important point is that all parts of this political machine are coordinated. They operate, as one, from some control tower we cannot see. We have tried to blame our Presidents, the State Department, the party in power, for our failures in foreign policy.

I am convinced we shall never recognize the octopus we have to fight until we realize it is not part of the legally established government at all. It is a revolutionary junta, operating within our own government, and through our government, but not for our government, our Constitution, or our nation. What keeps this cabal in power, under Democratic and under Republican administrations?

Why has it been impossible for three Presidents and many Congresses to demolish it? That is a long story but it can be summarized in three p's, pressure groups, propaganda and pelf—that is, big spending.

You are going to ask me whether this group is entirely Communist directed. I doubt if our problem is that simple. This group has, we know, included Communist Party members and Communist agents, and may still include them. It includes Socialists, collectivist one-worlders, ambitious individuals greedy for power, willing in time of trouble to advance themselves at the expense of their country. It includes trimmers and collaborators who believe they can make deals with the unscrupulous, who think they can get votes or power or contracts or publicity, from the Communists, and then cast aside their temptors. It includes the innocent and the simple-minded, who love big words that have no meaning.

I do not know what proportion of these people are Communists, but I know for certain that everything they do is of benefit to Moscow, because it is directed by Moscow. The Soviet leaders are the most skilful people in the world today in the new political arts of propaganda, brainwashing, camouflage, and what I have called revolution by assembly line. We can save ourselves a great deal of time and thought if we realize one fact. As conditions are today, the Communist world revolution will control and use all the bits and pieces of collectivism, one-worldism, centralism, internationalism and all their variations. None of them will be helpful to us. How are we going to redress the balance, and give strength to the vast majority of true Americans, so they can manage their own government? We must give up our reliance on legalism. The pro-Communist, internationalist, collectivist foreign policy, with its favoritism for everything which helps the Soviet Union, has triumphed again and again because of the energy, intelligence, and determination of a self-directed elite. We fight this advancing army with statements, promises, papers and laws.

We will never win until we oppose the collectivist political faction with resolute political action by men determined to put America first.

The pro-American group within our government today is more numerous, abler, stronger, more devoted, than the collectivist group. It is supported by the vast bulk of the voters of both parties. Its weakness is that it is trying to win a debate under the rules of American political life. It should be fighting for victory over opponents who know no rules.

PRO-AMERICANS ARE UNDER ATTACK

We must know first the names of leaders of the pro-American group.

You can find out who leads the American branch of our two-headed government by the enemies they have made.

The left wing-press and the collectivist collaborators are always ready to attack Secretary of Defense Wilson. They center much of their fire on Admiral Radford.

Kruschev, speaking in Red China last fall, violently denounced Admiral Radford, and bracketed him with the Communist hated Senators Knowland and McCarthy. Isn't it significant that left-wing American columnists today follow exactly the line spoken by Kruschev four or five months ago? You remember this bloc did not exactly like MacArthur. They denounce the Senators who support the free nations of Asia. They criticize President Eisenhower if he dares cooperate with Republicans they have not recommended. The collectivist press has not yet started to attack Herbert Hoover, Jr., who is now our Under-Secretary of State, but it is a rule of theirs never to call attention to good people on our side until they have to. Assistant Secretary of State Robertson has escaped their attack for the same reason.

Today pro-American officials have not one moment's security. They are constantly under attack, mostly by moves they cannot see. If you need a blueprint of how the collectivists keep dangerous anti-Communists under constant pressure, I suggest you analyze the series of moves which they employed to destroy Senator McCarthy, from the day in Wheeling, West Virginia, when he tore down the curtain of censorship hiding the Communists in our State Department. I tell you just such a subtle, complex, perfectly timed, secret campaign is already under way against the men who dared advise the President to resist the Chinese Reds. The strategy is worked out, and broken into steps. It will arise, "spontaneously," from all directions. It will be echoed in all quarters of the world. The "line" is already apparent in the inspired British press and that of the Continent.

ONLY POLITICAL ACTION WILL SAVE US

The bloc which intends to destroy the true Americans in our government is in action. Is there a bloc to defend the true Americans and drive out the secret enemies of our country? I am not urging you to help our friends in Asia. I am urging you to prevent the humiliating defeat of our country and everything it stands for.

You ask who are the leaders of the collectivist bloc. Who is taking Acheson's place today? I can guess but I have no legal proof. Remember, the physician can not have proof that his diagnosis is correct. He can get that only from the autopsy.

But I want to point out one significant fact. We are never going to have legal proof, about the most dangerous enemies of our country. We will not be able to use what proof we have, when the culprit is close to the top. Attorney-General Brownell and J. Edgar Hoover told us how FBI reports on Harry White, for example, were sent to President Truman, and his Cabinet officers again and again. We know President Truman and his top Cabinet members opposed promoting Harry White to the International Monetary Fund, in view of the record. But he was promoted. Who could tell the President of the United States he must promote a known Communist collaborator? I have been told who was the person responsible but I have so far no proof.

Shall we sit and do nothing, when we have political proof that some of our officials are selling out our country, merely because we have no affidavits of what was said in their secret conferences?

One thing we know. The Communists and their collaborators push their best men close to the top, because that is the safest place to be. No one could remove Dr. John from his job in Germany though more than one person knew he was disloyal. We may get the little traitors by assembling legal proof. We will never get the big ones, except by political counter-attack. The pro-Communist attack on our political institutions is political action. We must use political action to remove from public life every man or woman who is beholden to the Communists, or committed to a philosophy alien to our Constitution. We cannot wait until we see a party card.

POLITICAL ACTION WILL BRING ABOUT AN AMERICAN POLICY

We must also know American policy. It is all very well to know Communist policy, but it is more important to know American policy. We must have a clear American foreign policy and a clear American military policy before we enter any conference with other nations in the United Nations or outside. There is no harm in conferring with foreign governments, inside or outside of UN, so long as we put America first.

Nationalist China has perhaps half a million men eager to fight for their independence. Korea has courageous soldiers ready to fight on their own soil.

Indo-China can provide others, with American training. Altogether Free Asia can furnish millions of troops eager to guard their sectors of the frontier of freedom.

Can we guarantee that no one in our State Department or FOA will hamstring
